

PRESS RELEASE – CHO AMERICA

CHO America is proud to exhibit Terra Delyssa, Origin 846, Fork & Leaf, and Bulk by Cho at SIAL 2019 in Toronto

Montreal, QC – April 3, 2019

CHO AMERICA, a leading single source producer of premium extra virgin olive oils and specialty oils, is proud to exhibit its brands, Terra Delyssa, Origin 846, Fork & Leaf, and Bulk by CHO.

Terra Delyssa extra virgin olive oil is made from 100% Tunisian hand-picked olives, that are first cold pressed and crushed within 3 to 4 hours of harvest, guaranteeing a fresh aroma and lower acidity levels. Terra Delyssa Olive Oil is 100 percent traceable. Every bottle can be traced back to the field where the olives were grown. Terra Delyssa Extra Virgin Olive Oil has a fresh, smooth flavor that is versatile and convenient and has become an essential staple in every kitchen.

Terra Delyssa is now the #1 selling olive oil in Canada.

Origin 846 is an unprocessed, unfiltered first cold pressed extra virgin olive oil. Our olives are cultivated using the same sustainable farming methods as our ancestors without the use of pesticides or chemicals and are handpicked at the optimal ripeness. The olive oil is decanted to eliminate the majority of sediment, while retaining original antioxidant and polyphenol benefits. The result is an all-natural fresh, and smooth tasting extra virgin olive oil, available in both natural and organic formats. Origin 846 is intended for everyday use for dipping, drizzling, vinaigrettes, marinades, sautéing, and much more.”

Fork & Leaf’s premium organic oils are specially blended to meet all cooking needs. Whether frying, sautéing, roasting, or using it in a wok for a favorite stir fry, Fork & Leaf’s oils are specifically made to yield the best result. Each oil used are the highest quality and are blended to meet specific smoke points for safe usage and, provide the best health benefits. Fork & Leaf’s oil blends are organic, Non-GMO, gluten free, and kosher.

BULK BY CHO supplies bulk olive oil and specialty oils to co-packers and manufacturers of food, cosmetics and pharmaceuticals.
