

Sage to Exhibit at North America's Largest Food-Innovation Tradeshow

Sage Business Cloud solutions to empower more Canadian food and beverage businesses with seamless operational capabilities

Toronto, ON. – April 2019 — Sage (FTSE:SGE), the market leader in cloud business management solutions, is pleased to announce that it will be an exhibitor at the SIAL Canada conference in Toronto, between Tuesday April 30 and Thursday May 2, 2019, at Booth 1333.

“As an industry leader in delivering financial, people and enterprise management solutions to Canadian food and beverage businesses, it’s incredibly encouraging to see the industry embracing technology to get products to consumers, faster and more efficiently,” said Paul Struthers, EVP and Managing Director of Sage Canada. “Sage prides itself in being able to support Canadian producers, manufacturers and distributors working to grow their businesses, to help them streamline and simplify their supply chains and compliance operations.”

Sage provides food and beverage companies with solutions they need to uncover the essential insights required for modern resource planning and decision-making. From small locally sourced producers to large-scale distributors, Sage is proud to help drive the digital transformation of this vital industry.

At the Sage booth, the company will demonstrate how Sage Business Cloud solutions are helping customers make faster, smarter decisions by streamlining cash flow, compliance, profitability, fixed assets, as well as other accounting processes, and showcase success stories from existing customers in the food & beverage industry.

Attendees at the exhibition can also explore how solutions like Sage Business Cloud Enterprise Management can help food and beverage manufacturers modernize business systems by standardizing processes, identifying gaps and shortages, and promoting efficiencies—benefits that will be on full display at SIAL Canada 2019.
